Letter to Parents of boys in 8S and Year 7 Core Skills+

Friday 10 June 2011

Dear Parents

Visit to Palace of Westminster and the Clock Tower on Wednesday 22 June 2011

Following my 'dry run' of the above mentioned visit, I am now confirming that we shall travel by train, leaving Oxford Station at 07:30 and returning to Oxford Station at 18:15. In London we shall take the bus from Paddington to Westminster and back.

Please deliver your son to Oxford Station by 07:20 and collect him from Oxford Station at 18:15. I feel sure that you will appreciate that as we are travelling as a group, we shall not be able to wait for any latecomers. I shall have all the boys' tickets for safe-keeping.

The cost of all travel is £20.65 and this will be added to your son's school bill. No cost is incurred for the visit itself.

May I take this opportunity to remind you that your son should be attired in smart school uniform and should have light rainwear. He will also require a packed lunch and drinks. Should you wish, your son may bring a camera (though photography is not permitted inside the chambers themselves or in Big Ben). Please keep valuable items and electronic equipment to an absolute minimum. A small backpack is probably the easiest way of carrying personal possessions on this outing.

Please reply to me in hard copy or e-mail: alyson.mason@abingdonprep.org.uk so that I can be sure that you have received all the above information.

I hope your son is looking forward to this visit as much as John and I are!

Kind regards

Alyson
