Author visit and book purchase, Our Lady's Abingdon, Wednesday 9 February

On Wednesday 9 February, we shall be visiting Our Lady's Abingdon to hear the author, Julia Golding, speak as our Joint Abingdon Author 2011.

Julia will be talking about her life as a writer and introducing the children to her books, in particular 'Wolf Cry', and writing under a pseudonym, 'Finding Sky'.

Several of Julia's books have won, or been nominated for, prestigious children's book awards such as 'The Diamond of Drury Lane' (Waterstone's Children's Book Prize 2006 and the Nestle Children's Book Prize 2006) and 'Empty Quarter' which was longlisted for the Carnegie Award 2009 and most recently, 'Wolf Cry' nominated in 2010. If you would like to know more about Julia and her work, please visit her website at www.juliagolding.co.uk

If you would like your son to purchase any of her books and have them signed and charged to the bill, please print and complete the form below and return it to me, or email me with your request at gaynor.cooper@abingdon.org.uk. Books may also be purchased for cash or by cheque, payable to Mostly Books.

Yours sincerely,
