

ABINGDON

From: Dr Chris Burnand – Head of Classics

4 November 2011

Dear parents

Following the established custom for Abingdon Classics trips, we shall be having a party in the Amey Theatre and Foyer on Wednesday 23 November at 7.30pm to look back on the trip to Turkey at half-term. Over suitable refreshments we shall show some pictures and tell some of the stories from the trip, which otherwise you might never get to hear: the visits to sites, wet books, tactile guides, Turkish driving and other such delights. There will also be the presentation of prizes to the runaway winners of this year’s trip quiz.

There is also a photographic competition, open to all, and you will have the chance to see a full range of photos taken by the boys: massive prizes will be presented on the night. If you could prompt the boys to hand in hard copies of their best photos (ten maximum) to me as soon as possible, and by Monday 21 November at the latest, it would be a big help: I’m afraid we don’t want disks full of photos.

We hope that all of the boys who came on the trip and many of their parents will be able to join us, but I would ask that you might contact me, by replying by email (chris.burnand@abingdon.org.uk) or by printing off and returning the slip below, so that we have some idea of numbers.

I very much look forward to seeing you.

Yours sincerely

Chris Burnand
