ABINGDON TOUCHLINERS

Abingdon Touchliners is the parental support group for rugby at Abingdon School. Established in 2003 to complement the School's commitment and determination to raise the profile and depth of Abingdon rugby, Touchliners has since helped to raise a considerable amount of money towards the cost of additional training equipment and skills training for players, as well as supporting the most recent tour to Canada in July 2008. It is not just about raising money though – anybody who has played the game, belonged to a rugby club or supported their child through school or club rugby will appreciate the unique sense of spirit and belonging that rugby inspires amongst both parents and players. Touchliners is about creating that spirit and providing parents from all age groups with a social focus both on and off the touchline.

If you could let me know whether you will be attending by Wednesday 17 March, I will go ahead and make the appropriate catering arrangements. Any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at owen.cobbe@abingdon.org.uk. I look forward to meeting you.

Yours sincerely,

Owen Cobbe
Director of Rugby
