

ABINGDON

3 March 2010

To: Parents of boys studying Economics and/or Business Studies in the Lower Sixth and who are intending to go on the School trip to The Cass Business School, part of City University, on Monday 15 March

The coach will depart from the coach park at 1.00 pm, immediately after lunch, and the expected time of return is 10.00 pm. Teatime refreshments will be provided at Cass.

There will be a series of lectures/lecturettes. This will be an opportunity to look round and get a strong impression of the buildings, the context and the kinds of course which are on offer. Staff and alumni will be on hand during the interval. This is an early opportunity in the cycle for boys in the Lower Sixth who are studying economics and business studies to get an impression of a university which is a specialist deliverer in their area of interest.

Cost: £10.00, which will be placed on the bill.

In order for your son to go it is necessary, please, to sign the tear-off slip and ensure that it is returned to Mr. Mearns' pigeon-hole in the Masters' Common Room, either personally or via the boy's tutor by 5.00 pm, Wednesday 10 March.

Yours sincerely,

Rodney Mearns
