Dear Parent,

Re: GCSE History, Hindsight magazine subscription

We have been offered an excellent opportunity for boys studying GCSE History to continue to subscribe to the magazine GCSE Hindsight at a reduced rate.

A two-year subscription to the magazine is around £20. We would like 4th year students to take up this offer as I think it is a good one. The magazines contain specially written articles to help students get to grips with major historical events and key people of the twentieth century, regular features to help students develop skills using historical sources and useful advice on exam preparation.

For ease of administration it would be most helpful if the cost of the subscription could be added to your son's school bill. If you do not wish your son to receive the magazines please could you return the form at the bottom of this letter to Mr McGill by the start of half-term. If you are happy for your son to take up this offer of a subscription you need not reply – we will simply add the £10 to this term's bill and £10 next year as well.

Thank you in anticipation for your support of this initiative.

Yours sincerely

David McGill – Head of History
