From Jane Mansfield: Head of French

9 September 2016

Dear Parents

Pre-U French resources

As part of your son's Pre-U French course, he is studying the novel Bel Ami by Guy de Maupassant.

We strongly recommend that your son has his own copy of the book so that he can annotate it and highlight key quotes in the text. It will also be easier for your son to approach the book if he is working with the same edition as the rest of the class. The French department can provide your son with a copy of the novel for the price of £5.00.

If you would like to purchase a copy of this novel through the French department please complete the reply slip below. The sum of £5.00 will be added to your school bill.

Yours sincerely

Jane Mansfield
Head of French
