Dear Parents/Guardians,

Re: University of Bath Languages Conference

The University of Bath is organising a Spotlight on Languages Conference for able linguists on:

Friday 11 November 2016 from 9:45 am to 3.00 pm.

This event is for Lower 6th and IGCSE students who think about studying languages at university, either as a pure or a joint honours degree. There will be interactive workshops taken from the University's prestigious degree programmes, a chance to tour the fantastic university campus and to meet some of their current students. The University of Bath is one of the top universities to study languages in the UK (source: <http://www.thecompleteuniversityguide.co.uk/>)

During the day, pupils will get to:

- find out more about the modern foreign languages related degree programmes offered by the University of Bath
- attend beginners taster lessons in Arabic, Italian or European Studies
- attend advanced classes in French, Spanish or German
- tour the fantastic university campus
- meet and learn from University lecturers and researchers
- meet students studying their degrees
- find out about placements, careers and employability

The MFL department would like to offer your son the chance to attend this conference. There is no charge for the event itself. The only cost involved would be £17 for transport. The coach will leave from Abingdon coach park at 8:10am and should return on time for the school busses.

If your son would like to attend this Conference, please would you kindly complete the form via the link below by no later than Monday 10 October:
