6:30-7:30 pm, St Helen & St Katherine (YPH)

5th Year, L6, and U6 students and their parents are invited to this fascinating and insightful talk about the state of the current graduate job market. It is well-known that competition in the graduate job market is fierce and that you need to stand out. But how? What skills can you start building now while you are at school and how soon should you start graduate job hunting once you have arrived at university? All this and much more will be discussed, giving students practical ideas for the coming years. Our Speaker is James Darley, Founder and CEO of Transform Society, with 23 years experience in graduate recruitment. Booking is required. Booking form is here.
