Third and Fourth year Drama Production

Tickets are now on sale for this year's 3rd and 4th year drama production. The show is called "A Series of Public Apologies in Response to an Unfortunate Incident" and was written by John Donnelly at the start of 2020. Here's some information about it.

Why is it that, in the words of Elton John, "Sorry seems to be the hardest word" - and not just for some senior leaders in this new satirical play as they try to deal with an unfortunate incident on the school premises? Whatever the reason, there's no doubt our lives are increasingly littered with public figures lining up to apologise for one misdemeanour or another. And all too often, their use of the "s" word not only seems to stick in their throats, but to further inflame passions on all sides. Perhaps we shouldn't be surprised. As Alexander Pope reminded us, "to err is human; to forgive, divine." Featuring some strong language, our middle school cast tackle John Donnelly's comically entertaining play with relish.

Please follow this link to book tickets. Performances take place on Tuesday 29 and Wednesday 30 March at 7pm in the Amey Theatre. Audience capacity for this production is limited to around 50 tickets per performance, so to avoid disappointment, please don't delay!
